'TILII Translates'

A service to make your information accessible and easy to read

You need to make your information easy for people to understand. Easy Read should be co-produced by people with a learning disability.

Co-production

TILII Translates can help you

We are an experienced group of people with a learning disability, living in Northern Ireland. We have been trained in translating your information into Easy Read. We are experts by experience.

We create Easy Read using simple words, short sentences, clear pictures and good design.

TILII Translates offers two services

1. Translation Service

You provide the information you want to be translated into Easy Read and we do the rest.

2. Check and Approve Service

Send us your information and we check that people with a learning disability can understand it.

Costs start from £75 per page. Quotes based on length and complexity of the information.

As TILII Translates is a Belfast Trust contracted service, all translation is free to this Trust as a customer.

Why use TILII Translates?

TILII Translates are a unique group of people with a learning disability who are Experts by Experience. They have been trained by professional Speech & Language Therapists to produce Easy Read.

Access a wider audience

Easy Read helps you communicate with the 1 in every 5 people in Northern Ireland who have difficulty reading. This includes people with a learning disability, memory or sensory difficulties or who do not have English as a first language.

Value for Money

Easy Read improves the customer experience. Easy Read can help you build a positive reputation for good communication and assist developing staff communication skills. People are less likely to experience difficulties accessing your service and understanding your services, which means greater efficiency and fewer complaints.

Legal Compliance

Easy Read demonstrates a commitment to inclusive communication. Barriers to understanding your information are removed helping you meet your legal commitments to make reasonable adjustments under the Disability Discrimination Act.

Empower and Independence

Easy Read allows people to make informed choices, increases independence and helps people to self manage their own affairs. It can help people get a job, get more involved in their local communities and have their voice heard.

These are examples of what your end document/leaflet could look like when produced.
